

Form A1 - Residential Tenancies Act 1995 (section 47B(3))

Application for a prospective tenant to enter into a residential tenancy

Note - This is an application to enter into a residential tenancy agreement ONLY. You will be notified on the outcome of your application by the landlord or agent. A landlord, an agent of a landlord and a prospective tenant must use this form as the application form to enter into a residential tenancy agreement (see regulation 8(5) and section 47B(3) of the Residential Tenancies Act 1995). See also information to be provided by landlords to tenants before or at the time of entering into a residential tenancy agreement pursuant to section 48 of the Residential Tenancies Act 1995 - information and template form available on Consumer and Business Services website. A person, including a landlord that is a purpose-built student accommodation provider, must not require or receive a payment (other than rent or a bond) from a prospective tenant for a residential tenancy or the renewal or extension of a residential tenancy (see section 53 of the Residential Tenancies Act 1995).

Some government programs are available to assist with payments of bond monies, such as a South Australian Housing Trust bond guarantee. Prospective tenants cannot be required to divulge whether such assistance will be sought/provided.

6 - Rates and charges (to be filled in by the landlord or agent)

Rates and charges for the following prescribed services will be paid by (tick one box in each case):

Water: ☐ Tenant ☐ Landlord

Electricity: ☐ Tenant ☐ Landlord

Gas: ☐ Tenant ☐ Landlord ☐ Not applicable

Note - Electricity, gas and water are to be paid as agreed between the landlord and tenant. In the absence of an agreement, rates and charges based on the level of consumption are to be paid by the tenant. However, if the consumption is not separately metered or the rates and charges are not based on the level of consumption, the landlord is responsible for the charges.

The tenant may be required to pay rates and charges as an apportionment of the cost of a service if the property is not separately metered (for example, in a unit complex).

In relation to statutory charges, tenants are not liable for water connection or sewerage services that run past the premises.

Specify any other charges or effects on charges (e.g. telephone/internet/subscription television/solar):

Note: A tenant cannot be required to pay rates and charges for the supply of electricity, gas and water unless the landlord provides a copy of the invoice within 30 days of the authority issuing the invoice. All statutory charges, such as the availability of water or sewerage services that run past the rental premises, must be borne by the landlord.

A landlord should consider taking out insurance for the rental premises, and a tenant should consider taking out insurance for their contents in the premises.
